

Make a Gift in Your Will

Because you care about the causes that are important in your life

Make the Opera House part of your life story, or honour a family member or loved one, by making a gift to the Opera House in your will. A gift in your will is a meaningful way to continue to celebrate your love for the Opera House and make a lasting contribution for future generations.

Suggested wording for your gift to the Sydney Opera House in your will:

General bequest gifts

“I give, devise and bequeath [x% of my estate ] OR [$x] OR [the rest and residue of my estate] to the Sydney Opera House Trust (“the Trust”) to be applied for the purposes of the Trust in such a manner as the Trust may determine and I direct that a receipt from the Trust shall be sufficient discharge for such gift.”

Specific bequest gifts

If you wish to make a gift in your will to the Sydney Opera House to be directed to a specific purpose, or to make a gift of a specific item of property, please contact Crispin Rice, Head of Philanthropy and Trusts, Estates & Gift Planning, to discuss, in complete confidence, so that the Opera House can ensure it is able to fulfil your specific intention.

Updating your will to include a gift to the Opera House

If you have already made a will, and now wish to include the Opera House, you can add a codicil which will allow you to alter the original terms of the will.

To discuss your intention

If you have questions, would like more information, or wish to discuss your specific situation, please contact Crispin Rice, Head of Philanthropy and Trusts, Estates & Gift Planning on 02 9250 7077, or email crispin.rice@sydneyoperahouse.com.

Your enquiry will be handled with discretion and in confidence.

Terminology

- The residue of your estate: a residuary gift in your will is the residue of or the entirety of your estate once all legacies and costs have been paid.
- A percentage: you can also elect to leave a percentage of either the residue of your estate, or a percentage of your entire estate.
- A pecuniary gift: leaving a pecuniary gift means to make a gift in your will of a specific gift of cash
- An asset: an asset could be real estate, shares, bonds or other articles of value such as culturally significant works of art.
