

LIVE PERFORMANCE AUSTRALIA TICKETING CODE OF PRACTICE

PART A: BACKGROUND	2	13. When am I entitled to a refund?	10
1. What is the LPA Ticketing Code of Practice?	2	Cancellation prior to Event	10
2. What are the objectives of the Code?	2	Rescheduling prior to Event	10
3. What is the legal status of the Code?	3	Significant relocation of Event	11
4. Who is bound by the Code?	3	Cancellation or rescheduling during Event	11
5. What Tickets are covered by the Code?	3	Incidents affecting enjoyment of Event	11
6. How is the Code enforced?	3	Discretionary Refunds	12
Complaints	4	Amount of refund	13
Compliance and liability	4	Recipient of refund	13
7. How is the Code interpreted?	4	Request for refund	13
8. How is the Code publicised?	5	Complaint	13
9. How is this Code monitored and reviewed?	5	14. When am I not entitled to a refund?	14
Code Reviewer	5	Dislike of or dissatisfaction with Event	14
Review and report on compliance	5	Failure or inability to attend Event	14
Review and report on improvements	6	Late attendance	14
		Refused entry or evicted	14
PART B: CONSUMER RIGHTS	7	Use of an understudy	14
10. What are my rights when I buy a Ticket?	7	Change in support act or festival acts	15
Consumer Guarantees	7	Non-compliance with the Code	15
Terms and Conditions	7	Change in Ticket price	15
Agreement to Terms and Conditions	8	Release of additional seats or dates	15
11. Can I transfer or resell my Ticket?	8	Lost, stolen or invalid Tickets	15
12. What are my rights if I bought my Ticket from a Ticket Scalper or Unauthorised Seller?	9	15. Can I be refused entry to or evicted from an Event?	16
Ticket Scalpers	9	Refused entry or evicted	16
Unauthorised Sellers	9	Late entry	17
Authorised Sellers	9	16. Can I be searched at an Event?	17
Guide	9
		PART C: DEFINITIONS	18

PART A: BACKGROUND

1. WHAT IS THE LPA TICKETING CODE OF PRACTICE?

The Live Performance Australia Ticketing Code of Practice (Code) operates as a best practice guide for the Australian live performance industry. It applies to the purchase and use of Tickets and related matters.

The Code sets standards for consumer protection to encourage consumer confidence in the Australian live performance industry. It is in the best interests of all Consumers and industry participants to comply with the Code.

The Code consists of two companion documents:

- (a) this Consumer Code, which provides information for Consumers regarding their rights, as well as the process by which the Code is monitored and reviewed; and
- (b) the Industry Code, which provides guidelines for industry participants regarding Complaint handling procedures, ticket proceeds handling protocols, advertising, ticket pricing and other industry practices.

The Industry Code may be accessed at the LPA website or by requesting a copy from LPA at info@liveperformance.com.au.

The first edition of the Code came into effect on 1 November 2001. This sixth and current edition is effective from 1 January 2016.

Any questions regarding the Code may be directed to LPA at info@liveperformance.com.au.

2. WHAT ARE THE OBJECTIVES OF THE CODE?

The objectives of the Code are to:

- (a) establish high standards of consumer protection in the live performance industry, particularly in relation to ticketing Terms and Conditions, Consumers' rights of entry to Events and Ticket refunds and exchanges;
- (b) create a model of industry best practice;
- (c) inform Consumers of the standards of Consumer protection established by the Code;
- (d) provide consistency with relevant Consumer Laws and therefore assist all Members with compliance;
- (e) provide industry and Consumer guidance regarding Ticket Scalpers; and
- (f) provide guidelines regarding the fair resolution of Ticket related Consumer Complaints.

3. WHAT IS THE LEGAL STATUS OF THE CODE?

The Code is not and does not seek to be a binding legal document. It is a voluntary industry code of practice.

There is legislation in place throughout Australia which deals with various protections and rights for consumers and obligations of businesses when dealing with consumers. At the Federal level, there is the Australian Consumer Law which is administered by the Australian Competition & Consumer Commission. At the State and Territory level, there is legislation such as the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 (Vic) which is administered by Consumer Affairs Victoria and analogous legislation in other States and Territories. In this Code, all such legislation is referred to as the Consumer Laws.

Nothing in this Code excludes or restricts any rights or remedies a Consumer may have under the Consumer Laws.

4. WHO IS BOUND BY THE CODE?

The Code is a voluntary industry code of practice. However compliance with the Code is a condition of membership for all Members. If a Member fails to comply with the Code, its membership may be revoked. Other consequences of non-compliance with the Code are set out in the Industry Code.

Organisations which are not Members are encouraged to adopt ticketing practices as set out in the Code, but may not refer Complaints to LPA.

When a Member enters into commercial arrangements for an Event with non-Members, the Member agrees to use its best efforts to ensure that all parties involved in the Event comply with the provisions of the Code.

5. WHAT TICKETS ARE COVERED BY THE CODE?

This Code applies to the sale and re-sale of Tickets to Events presented and ticketed by Members.

This Code does not cover the ticketing of sporting events.

6. HOW IS THE CODE ENFORCED?

The Code encourages industry self-regulation.

COMPLAINTS

To lodge a Complaint, you should first contact the Member with whom you have the Complaint. The Member is required to have a Complaints handling procedure in place for use in resolving Complaints by Consumers in accordance with the Code.

If the Complaint is not resolved at that stage or if the Member is not sure how to interpret the Code, then either you or the Member may contact the LPA Complaints Officer for further guidance. The LPA Complaints Officer may be contacted at complaints@liveperformance.com.au.

You may refer your Complaint to the LPA Complaints Officer if you are not satisfied with the outcome achieved with the Member or if you believe that a breach of the Code has occurred. The role of the LPA Complaints Officer includes ensuring that the Member has correctly interpreted and applied the terms of the Code.

LPA will endeavour to investigate and prevent any breaches of this Code of which it becomes aware.

Complaints may also be referred to an Independent Reviewer in accordance with the Industry Code. In addition, the Executive Council may impose penalties on Members for breaches of the Code, including expulsion from LPA.

For further information, please see the LPA Complaints Handling and Dispute Resolution Policy and section 2 of the Industry Code.

COMPLIANCE AND LIABILITY

While LPA makes it a condition of membership that Members comply with the Code, LPA cannot and does not monitor compliance by all Members at all times.

To the extent permitted by law, LPA does not accept any liability for any loss occurring from compliance or non-compliance with the Code or for the results of any action taken in reliance on or as a result of the Code.

7. HOW IS THE CODE INTERPRETED?

Where there is any doubt about the intent or scope of the Code, it should be interpreted in light of the objectives of the Code set out in section 2 above.

To the extent permitted by law, the decision of the Executive Council on matters of interpretation of the Code is final.

8. HOW IS THE CODE PUBLICISED?

LPA and Members endeavour to ensure that information prepared in connection with this Code is in plain English and is readily available to Consumers, such as by display at Venues, in promotional literature and on the LPA and Members' websites.

Where this Code requires a Member to make information or documents available on request, such a request is generally satisfied by making the information or documents available on a website. Where a person requiring the information or documents advises that they cannot access the internet, the Member should take reasonable steps to satisfy their request in another way.

9. HOW IS THIS CODE MONITORED AND REVIEWED?

CODE REVIEWER

LPA appoints a Code Reviewer for a minimum period of three years.

The Code Reviewer must be independent from LPA and Members and have the necessary specialist expertise, including in competition and consumer law, to perform the following functions:

- (a) to conduct the review and report on compliance with the Code referred to below;
- (b) as part of the functions under paragraph (a), to deal with Complaints from Members or members of the public as set out in the Industry Code; and
- (c) to conduct the review and report on improvements to the Code referred to below.

REVIEW AND REPORT ON COMPLIANCE

Every two years, in consultation with LPA and Members, as appropriate, the Code Reviewer undertakes a review and prepares a report on the level of Members' compliance with the Code.

The Code Reviewer provides the report to LPA, which provides a copy of the report to the Commonwealth, State and Territory Government departments or agencies responsible for administration of the Consumer Laws.

REVIEW AND REPORT ON IMPROVEMENTS

Every three years, in consultation with LPA and Members, as appropriate, the Code Reviewer undertakes a review of the operation of the Code and prepares a report on any recommended improvements or changes to the Code.

For the purposes of the triennial review, the Code Reviewer:

- (a) invites written submissions on the operation of the Code and on any amendments that are considered necessary or desirable to improve the operation of the Code; and
- (b) undertakes such other consultations as the Code Reviewer considers appropriate.

LPA places a notice on its website informing Members and the general public that the triennial review is being conducted and that they may make written submissions to the Code Reviewer. The notice is posted for a minimum period of one month before the commencement of the review.

The Code Reviewer allows a period of at least one month for the making of submissions.

At the completion of the submission period, the Code Reviewer prepares a report and makes such recommendations as the Code Reviewer considers appropriate in relation to the operation of the Code and any recommended changes to the Code.

The Code Reviewer may convene a Code Review Working Party if it is foreseen that major changes to the Code may need to be considered. The Code Reviewer will appoint an independent Chair to the Working Party recruited from outside the Industry and at least three Industry representatives.

The Code Reviewer provides the report to LPA, which:

- (a) makes a copy of the report available to Members and the general public by placing a copy on the LPA website; and
- (b) provides a copy of the report to the Commonwealth, State and Territory Government departments or agencies responsible for administration of the Consumer Laws.

The report then forms the basis for any amendments to the Code. Any amendments to the Code must be ratified by the Executive Council before they take effect. The Executive Council will not unreasonably refuse to ratify amendments to the Code that have been recommended in the Code Reviewer's report.

PART B: CONSUMER RIGHTS

10. WHAT ARE MY RIGHTS WHEN I BUY A TICKET?

CONSUMER GUARANTEES

The Australian Consumer Law provides consumers with automatic guarantees in relation to most goods or services (including entertainment services) supplied by a person in the course of trade or business. These Consumer Guarantees cannot be excluded or varied by any agreement between the consumer and the supplier.

In summary, the Consumer Guarantees in relation to Events include a guarantee that:

- the services will be rendered with due care and skill; and
- the services will be reasonably fit for the particular purpose for which they are acquired.

If the services fail to comply with any Consumer Guarantee, your remedies include:

- the right to require the failure to be rectified within a reasonable time if the failure is not a 'major failure' and is able to be rectified; or
- the right to seek a full refund if the failure to comply is a 'major failure' or cannot be rectified.

An example of a 'major failure' is where a reasonable consumer would not have acquired the service if the consumer had been fully aware of the nature and extent of the failure.

More detailed information about the Consumer Guarantees can be found on the ACCC's website at <https://www.accc.gov.au/consumers/consumer-rights-guarantees>

These Consumer Guarantees apply in addition to and despite any other rights set out in this Code.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

When you buy a Ticket, there are usually Terms and Conditions which apply to the sale of the Ticket and/or entry to the Event or Venue.

Indication of your agreement to the Terms and Conditions is usually a pre-condition to the purchase of a Ticket (see below). If you indicate your agreement, you are bound by the Terms and Conditions.

Where possible, a summary of Terms and Conditions (including any important terms) should be printed clearly on the Ticket or accompanying literature and brought to your attention at the point of sale. The Ticket should also advise you where you can view the full Terms and Conditions (such as the Presenter's website).

Terms and Conditions remain in effect even if the Ticket is given or sold to someone else and therefore any subsequent holder of the Ticket is bound by the same Terms and Conditions (see section 12 of this Code).

If you purchase or otherwise acquire a Ticket from someone other than an Authorised Seller, you may not be aware of the Terms and Conditions, including that your purchase or use of the Ticket may be in breach of the Terms and Conditions.

AGREEMENT TO TERMS AND CONDITIONS

It is the responsibility of each Member which sells Tickets to ensure you are aware of the Terms and Conditions and to obtain your agreement to them. Your agreement may be obtained in the following ways:

- (a) Online: The Terms and Conditions should be readily available for you to read with any important terms visually accentuated. You should be required to indicate, prior to confirmation of payment, your acknowledgement and acceptance of the Terms and Conditions.
- (b) By phone: You should be advised of any important Terms and Conditions before you purchase the Ticket and be directed to where you can read the full Terms and Conditions. You should be required to indicate, prior to confirmation of payment, your acknowledgement and acceptance of the Terms and Conditions.
- (c) In person: The Terms and Conditions should be prominently displayed at the sale counter with any important terms visually accentuated. You should be required to indicate, prior to payment, your acknowledgement and acceptance of the Terms and Conditions.

You should be made aware of any restrictions on your right to a refund or exchange. Nothing in the Terms and Conditions should attempt to exclude or restrict any rights or remedies that you may have under the Consumer Laws.

11. CAN I TRANSFER OR RESELL MY TICKET?

Unless expressly prohibited by the Terms and Conditions, Tickets may be gifted, transferred or re-sold.

Some Events have stricter Terms and Conditions (e.g. the Ticket may be linked to a specific person) and in such cases, you may not be permitted to transfer or resell the Ticket or may only be permitted to do so in limited circumstances. If you are unsure whether you are permitted to transfer a Ticket to someone else, you should check with the Presenter or Authorised Seller.

You do not have an automatic right to resell a Ticket at a profit – see section 12 below.

12. WHAT ARE MY RIGHTS IF I BOUGHT MY TICKET FROM A TICKET SCALPER OR UNAUTHORISED SELLER?

TICKET SCALPERS

Ticket scalping may constitute a breach of the Terms and Conditions applicable to the sale of the Ticket and may, in certain circumstances, lead to the Ticket being cancelled without refund.

Ticket scalping is governed by legislation in certain jurisdictions and circumstances and may attract criminal penalties.

Ticket scalping activities that come to the attention of LPA or Members may be referred to the relevant authorities, where a breach of any applicable legislation is considered to have occurred.

UNAUTHORISED SELLERS

Not all reselling is Ticket scalping but there are risks associated with purchasing a Ticket from any Unauthorised Seller.

A Ticket purchased from an Unauthorised Seller does not guarantee you entry to the Event. Such Tickets may be forgeries or may have been sold multiple times over, which may lead to you being refused entry to the Event.

In certain circumstances, Members may cancel Tickets that are bought from or sold by Unauthorised Sellers, without providing a refund.

In the case of an Event cancellation, the refund will be provided to the original Ticket purchaser (see section 13). If you are not the original purchaser because you bought your Ticket from an Unauthorised Seller, there is no guarantee that the refund provided to the original purchaser will be passed on to you.

AUTHORISED SELLERS

The best way to protect your rights as a consumer is to purchase Tickets from an Authorised Seller.

You can identify the Authorised Seller by going to the Presenter or Venue Manager's website and following their links to the Event, or by contacting the Presenter or Venue Manager directly.

GUIDE

For further information, refer to the LPA Consumer Guide: Buying and Selling in the Ticket Resale Market.

13. WHEN AM I ENTITLED TO A REFUND?

The Consumer Laws referred to in section 10 apply in addition to and despite any other rights set out in this Code.

The refund rights set out below provide guidance to Members and Consumers regarding how the Consumer Laws may apply to ticketing situations. In addition, a Member may exercise its discretion to provide a refund where there is no strict legal requirement to do so.

As stated in section 12 above, if you purchase your Ticket from an Unauthorised Seller, you may have no guarantee of receiving a refund from that Unauthorised Seller and you may have no right to a refund from the Authorised Seller.

You are not entitled to a refund if your Ticket was free or complimentary.

CANCELLATION PRIOR TO EVENT

You have a right to a refund if the Event to which you purchased a Ticket from an Authorised Seller is cancelled prior to the Event.

When an Event is cancelled, the Member should make reasonable endeavours to advise you as soon as practicable. Your contact details are generally obtained at the point of sale for this purpose.

If you paid for your Tickets by credit card, the value of the Tickets, plus any additional fees and charges, should be automatically credited back to your card.

If you purchased your Tickets by cash, voucher or other non-traceable means, you will need to apply for a refund from the point of purchase in a timely manner.

RESCHEDULING PRIOR TO EVENT

You have a right to a refund if the Event to which you purchased a Ticket from an Authorised Seller is rescheduled prior to the Event (and you cannot or do not wish to attend the rescheduled Event).

When an Event is rescheduled, the Member should make reasonable endeavours to advise you as soon as practicable. Your contact details are generally obtained at the point of sale for this purpose.

The Member should make reasonable endeavours to ensure that you are given seating in a similar location at the rescheduled Event.

If you are unable or unwilling to attend the Event on the rescheduled date, you should apply for a refund in a timely manner. Where possible, you should apply for a refund from the point of purchase not more than five working days after the announcement of the rescheduled date, and in any event before the rescheduled Event takes place.

SIGNIFICANT RELOCATION OF EVENT

You have a right to a refund if the Event to which you purchased a Ticket from an Authorised Seller is significantly relocated (where the nature of the experience and/or geographic location of the Event is fundamentally altered by the change of Venue).

When an Event is significantly relocated, the Member should make reasonable endeavours to advise you as soon as practicable. Your contact details are generally obtained at the point of sale for this purpose.

The Member should make reasonable endeavours to ensure that you are given seating in a similar location at the relocated Event.

If you wish to apply for a refund, you should do so in a timely manner. Where possible, you should apply for a refund from the point of purchase not more than five working days after the announcement of the Event's relocation or by a later date set by the Member.

CANCELLATION OR RESCHEDULING DURING EVENT

Occasionally, Events are cancelled for unforeseen circumstances that arise during the Event, leaving the Event uncompleted. Sometimes such Events are rescheduled, but often this is not possible.

In these circumstances, you may be entitled to a full or partial refund or credit or a replacement ticket to the Event at another time.

Your right to a refund or exchange and the extent of the refund depends upon what is reasonable in the circumstances including the nature of the Event and the proportion of the Event completed. For example, a concert that is cut short may provide a fuller experience than a play that is cut short preventing you from seeing the end of the story, or an Event that is three quarters completed may provide a fuller experience than one that is less than half completed. If a substantial proportion of the Event is completed then, depending on the circumstances, it may be reasonable for a Member to determine that a refund or exchange is not warranted.

INCIDENTS AFFECTING ENJOYMENT OF EVENT

A refund may be given in circumstances where an incident out of your control has fundamentally affected your enjoyment of the Event. These may be incidents under the control of the Member such as a technical failure or incidents out of the Member's control such as offensive behaviour by another Consumer.

Depending on the circumstances, the incident may be covered by the Consumer Guarantees and you may be entitled to a refund or exchange or the incident may not be covered by the Consumer Guarantees but the Member may, in its absolute discretion, decide to give you a refund or exchange.

DISCRETIONARY REFUNDS

Where the incident is not covered by the Consumer Guarantees but you wish to seek a discretionary refund, you should lodge a Complaint as follows:

(a) Prior to the Event:

If the incident giving rise to your Complaint occurs prior to the Event, you should lodge your Complaint with the Presenter, Venue Manager or Authorised Seller in a timely manner and, where possible, before the Event.

(b) During the Event:

If the incident giving rise to your Complaint occurs during the Event, you should lodge your Complaint with the Venue Manager (via a Front of House Attendant) at the earliest possible opportunity. If possible, this should be done within 30 minutes of the commencement of the Event or by the interval at the latest (where applicable).

The Venue Manager, having verified the existence of an incident that gave rise to your Complaint, should make all reasonable attempts to rectify the problem, including reseating or relocating you if necessary and possible.

Where your Complaint is not rectified, the Venue Manager may, at its discretion, offer you a full or partial refund or give you the option to attend another performance of the same Event. If this occurs, you may not be entitled to attend the remaining portion of the Event for which the refund or exchange is given.

(c) Subsequent to the Event:

If your Complaint arises subsequent to the Event, you should contact the Venue Manager for advice regarding the person or organisation to whom you should report your Complaint.

You should lodge your Complaint in a timely manner and, in any event, endeavour to do so within five working days of the Event.

Live
Performance
Australia®

LIVE PERFORMANCE AUSTRALIA CONSUMER CODE

AMOUNT OF REFUND

When applicable, a full refund covers the entire cost of the Ticket, including all charges such as transaction fees, booking fees, credit card surcharges and compulsory public transport levies.

It does not cover costs imposed by external suppliers that you were not obliged to incur but chose to incur, such as registered or express post fees, courier charges or insurance.

Unless required by law, Members will not reimburse you for auxiliary expenses incurred by you in connection with your attendance or non-attendance at an Event, including a cancelled, rescheduled or relocated Event. Auxiliary expenses include, but are not limited to, the cost of travel, car-parking, child-care and accommodation.

You should carefully consider the refund and cancellation policies of travel, accommodation and other goods or service providers when making arrangements associated with attendance at an Event.

RECIPIENT OF REFUND

A refund will be paid to the original Ticket purchaser.

REQUEST FOR REFUND

In order to verify the authenticity of any claim, your original Ticket and/or proof of purchase may be requested.

A refund may not necessarily be available at the Venue at the time the refund is requested.

When making a request for refund or a Complaint to a Member, you should identify yourself by the same name and address you used at the time you purchased the Ticket.

COMPLAINT

If you believe that you are entitled to a refund, credit or exchange but the relevant Member does not provide you with the refund, credit or exchange, please contact the LPA Complaints Officer at complaints@liveperformance.com.au for further advice.

See also section 6 of this Code.

14. WHEN AM I NOT ENTITLED TO A REFUND?

There are circumstances in which Consumers may believe they are entitled to a refund when they are not actually entitled to a refund under the Consumer Laws. Examples of some of the more common circumstances are set out below.

DISLIKE OF OR DISSATISFACTION WITH EVENT

A Member is not required to provide a refund or exchange if you did not enjoy the Event or were dissatisfied with the performance at the Event.

FAILURE OR INABILITY TO ATTEND EVENT

A Member is not required to provide a refund or exchange where you are unable to attend for reasons including, without limitation, your illness, the illness of any person accompanying you to the Event or other person for whom you need to care, transport failure or delay, or where you choose not to attend the Event for which you purchased the Ticket.

You are encouraged to investigate ticket and travel insurance which may cover your loss in some of these circumstances.

LATE ATTENDANCE

A Member is not required to provide a refund or exchange where you arrive late to an Event and are refused entry on the grounds that latecomers will not be admitted, or are delayed admission or re-admission until a suitable break in the performance.

If latecomers are not to be admitted, this should be made clear in the Terms and Conditions or in pre-Event information provided to you.

REFUSED ENTRY OR EVICTED

A Member is not required to provide a refund or exchange where you have been refused entry to or evicted from the Venue in any of the circumstances outlined in section 15 below.

USE OF AN UNDERSTUDY

A Member is not required to provide a refund or exchange where a performance has been made by an understudy in the place of a main performer, provided that you have been made aware of the use of an understudy.

CHANGE IN SUPPORT ACT OR FESTIVAL ACTS

A Member is not required to provide a refund or exchange where a support act is replaced or if the acts appearing at a festival change.

NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE

Non-compliance with the terms of this Code by a Member does not automatically give you a right to a refund. Refunds in this circumstance depend on the nature of the non-compliance.

CHANGE IN TICKET PRICE

At times, during the course of selling Tickets to an Event, a Presenter will alter the Ticket price in response to varying levels of consumer demand. Such alterations do not affect the Terms and Conditions applying to Tickets purchased prior to the price change and do not entitle you to claim a refund on your Ticket price or the difference between your Ticket price and the newly adjusted Ticket price.

RELEASE OF ADDITIONAL SEATS OR DATES

Occasionally during the course of selling Tickets, a Presenter will release additional seats (for example, when final stage dimensions are known or in response to demand) or additional dates for presentation of the Event. Such alterations do not affect the Terms and Conditions applying to Tickets purchased prior to the release of additional seats or dates and do not entitle you to claim a refund for Tickets purchased prior to the release of additional seats or dates.

LOST, STOLEN OR INVALID TICKETS

If Tickets for reserved seats are lost or stolen, it may be possible for the Presenter or Authorised Seller to replace them, provided that you are not engaging in deception or fraud.

However, not all Tickets can be traced and you should safeguard against loss or theft by treating all physical Tickets (including print-at-home Tickets) like cash.

You should ensure the validity of your Ticket by purchasing Tickets only from Authorised Sellers (see section 12 of this Code).

Members may refuse to refund or replace lost or stolen Tickets for a general admission Event or area or print-at-home Tickets when multiple tickets have been printed.

15. CAN I BE REFUSED ENTRY TO OR EVICTED FROM AN EVENT?

REFUSED ENTRY OR EVICTED

A Presenter or Venue Manager may refuse you entry to the Venue or evict you from the Venue subsequent to entry on valid grounds which include, but are not limited to, any of the following circumstances:

- (a) where you cannot produce a Ticket for the Event;
- (b) where you produce a Ticket that has been handled or dealt with in a way that is contrary to the applicable Terms and Conditions;
- (c) where you cannot produce proof of your concession entitlement where a concession Ticket has been purchased;
- (d) where you produce a Ticket that is identified by the Presenter or Venue Manager as having been sold by an Unauthorised Seller;
- (e) where you have in your possession and/or refuse to surrender to the Venue Manager's staff any prohibited object or article including but not limited to dangerous items, photographic or recording equipment or food or alcohol that is not permitted to be brought into or used in that Venue;
- (f) where you refuse to undergo a physical search or a search of your possessions and the Terms and Conditions state that a search may be required;
- (g) where you behave in a manner which causes or may cause property damage or that threatens or may threaten the safety of performers, other Consumers or any other persons, including as a result of intoxication;
- (h) where you behave in a manner that unreasonably interferes with other Consumers' enjoyment of the Event, including through the use of cameras, mobile phones, personal computers, paging devices or other electronic devices;
- (i) where you otherwise breach the Terms and Conditions or fail to follow the reasonable directions of the Venue Manager's staff; or
- (j) where you refuse to remain in the area or seat designated on your Ticket.

You should be notified in the Terms and Conditions that you can be refused entry or evicted from the Venue on the grounds set out above or on other specified grounds.

LATE ENTRY

If you arrive at the Venue after commencement of the Event, the Presenter or Venue Manager may refuse you entry or delay your admission (or readmission if you have left during the Event) until there is a suitable break in the performance.

16. CAN I BE SEARCHED AT AN EVENT?

Your person and possessions may be searched at an Event, but you should be notified of this possibility in the Terms and Conditions when you buy the Ticket (see section 10) and by notice displayed at the Event.

PART C: DEFINITIONS

In this Code, the following terms have the meanings set out below:

AEIA

The Australian Entertainment Industry Association, being an organisation registered under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (Cth).

AEIA Rules

The Rules of the Australian Entertainment Industry Association, as amended from time to time and registered with the Fair Work Commission.

Australian Consumer Law

The Australian Consumer Law set out in Schedule 2 to the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth).

Authorised Seller

A person or organisation who or which is authorised by the Presenter or Venue Manager to sell Tickets for an Event. In some cases, the Venue Manager will be the Authorised Seller.

The term includes reference to a person authorised by the Presenter to sell Tickets as part of a package with travel, hospitality or accommodation benefits.

Code

The Live Performance Australia Ticketing Code of Practice comprising this Consumer Code and the Industry Code.

Code Reviewer

A person appointed by the Executive Council as referred to in section 9 of this Code.

Complaint

A statement made to LPA or a Member that any product, service or situation is unsatisfactory or unacceptable.

Consumer

A person who purchases or holds a Ticket to an Event.

Includes a person who holds a Ticket to an Event where this Code refers to matters occurring during an Event.

Includes a person who is intending to purchase a Ticket to an Event where this Code refers to matters occurring prior to the purchase of a Ticket.

Consumer Code

The Consumer Code component of the Live Performance Australia Ticketing Code of Practice. Available on the LPA website.

Consumer Guarantees

The Consumer Guarantees set out in Division 1 of Part 3.2 of the Australian Consumer Law.

Consumer Laws

The Australian Consumer Law and other State and Territory consumer protection legislation.

Event

A live performance including but not limited to theatre, opera, dance, concert, festival, spectacular, or arena event. Does not include a sporting event.

Executive Council

The Council in which is vested the management of the AEIA, in accordance with Rule 11 of the AEIA Rules.

Live
Performance
Australia®

LIVE PERFORMANCE AUSTRALIA CONSUMER CODE

Industry Code

The Industry Code component of the Live Performance Australia Ticketing Code of Practice.
Available on the LPA website.

LPA

Live Performance Australia (being the business name used by AEIA and under which AEIA operates).

Member

A financial member of AEIA in accordance with the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 and the AEIA Rules. Membership includes persons and organisations in the live performance industry who or which make Tickets available for sale, whether to the general public or otherwise.

Presenter

A person, organisation, promoter, producer or Venue Manager which presents Events.
Actions of a Presenter's staff are taken to be actions of the Presenter.

Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions which apply to the sale of the Ticket and/or entry to the Event or Venue.

Ticket

A revocable licence granted to the Consumer to be admitted entry to an Event or to a Venue, subject to the applicable Terms and Conditions, evidenced by any ticket, voucher, coupon, card, badge, document or other form of identification device such as an electronic barcode, wristband, member's card or a credit card.

The right of admission to the Event may also include the right to be admitted to a designated area or a designated seat.

Ticket Scalper

Any person or organisation, not being an Authorised seller or otherwise approved by an Authorised Seller, who or which resells or offers to resell a Ticket at a premium price (i.e. higher than the original price) with the intention of reselling the Ticket in order to make a profit or gain some other financial benefit.

Includes any person or organisation who or which is considered to be a ticket scalper under any applicable legislation in Australia.

Unauthorised Seller

A person or organisation who is not authorised by the Presenter or Venue Manager to sell Tickets for an Event.
Includes a Ticket Scalper.

Venue

The place where the Event is held.

Venue Manager

The owner, proprietor or manager of a Venue.

The actions of the Venue Manager's staff are taken to be actions of the Venue Manager.